

Sadiq Public School

Do the right, fear no man

Subject: Islamiyat

Class: C1

Day: Saturday (16th Nov, 24)

Lesson: Shahada (Pillars of Islam)

A. Inquiry:

The Shadah is the first pillar of Islam and is the pledge made by a Muslim towards God which sums up a person's faith and belief. Its words are few but extremely significant. "I bear witness that there is no God except Allah, I bear witness that Muhammad (SAW) is Allah's messenger." By reciting the Shahada a person, whether they were born amongst Muslims or are converting later in their lifetime, becomes part of umma through their common faith and through brotherhood regardless of their race, caste or social position.

1. What is the literal meaning of Shahada?
2. How many parts of Shahada are?
3. Why this pillar is having so much importance in religion?
4. What do you think is the most significant part of Shahada?

B. Information:

This is the most fundamental part of the Muslim's belief and it is obligatory to have firm believe in it.

C. Synthesizing:

Read carefully the pages 238-240 and write your answer according to the information provided above.

D. Practicing:

- Q(a). State the words of the Shahada and give an account of the Shahada's significance in Islam. (10)
- (b). What do you think is the importance of understanding the Shahada? Give reasons to support your answer. (4)

To secure good marks, you need to cite the Quran verses, Hadiths, references of scholars. Moreover you are suggested to use maximum material to enhance the quality of your answers to meet the Cambridge standard.

Note: Write down your answers in your Note books and send them to your teacher in an email message. Dear Students if you have any query about the topic and you are unable to understand anything, you please send your email for quick response.
